LUCKY THESE LOGS ARE HERE!

Bugs Bunny raced down the street so fast he almost bumped right into Elmer Fudd.

"Gwacious!" Elmer exclaimed, jumping back. "What's the gweat wush?"

Bugs skidded to a stop. "Haven't you heard?" he cried. "A big movie company is shooting a Western right here!" He pointed to the giant cameras set up in the street. "All my natural acting talent is just begging to be discovered," Bugs moaned.

A sly expression twinkled across Elmer's face. "Of course I heard," he replied casually. "The director is an old fwiend of mine. I'd twy and awouse his intewest in you," he continued, "but I can't take the time now. I have to clean my gawage."

"I'll clean your garage!" Bugs shouted recklessly. "You just get me in!"

"It's a deal!" Elmer said gleefully. "You wait wight here."

"I won't move," Bugs breathed.

Elmer sauntered over to one of the men on the movie location and whispered a few words to him. After a moment, the man shouted at Bugs, "Hey, you! You with the ears! Want to get in this show?"

Bugs broke into a run. "DO IT!"

"Good luck, Bugs," Elmer called. "And don't forget about our deal!"

The man plunked a cowboy hat on Bugs's head and shoved him towards a horse.

The big animal began to snort as Bugs mounted him nervously. "Easy, pal," Bugs murmured as he squared his shoulders and beamed into the cameras. "How's this?"

The man seemed annoyed. "We don't care about your face. You're the stunt man! Didn't your friend tell you?"

Bugs's jaw dropped. "Oh, NO! I want out of this! I've been swindled!"

At that moment, a gun went off and the big horse burst into action. "Wait a minute!" Bugs pleaded, his nose ahead of the horse's. "WHOA! boy! Lemme off! I quit! I resign!" His heels dug deep into the animal's sides, which only made it run faster.

With a mighty NEIGH, the startled animal raced down the road, narrowly missing cars and pedestrians. As they sideswiped a big truck, Bugs closed his eyes and dug his fingers into the horse's mane. The animal belatedly protested and bucked wildly. All poor Bugs could do was hold onto his hat with one hand and yank on the reins with the other, which sent the huge horse whirling in mid-air and galloping furiously back towards the movie cameras.

"Hold it!" the man shouted. "We got a fine shot!"

Bugs bumped up and down frantically, talking to the horse all the while. "H-Hold it, he says! Wh-Whoah!"

Just then, a second gunshot went off, and the animal reared again in his fright. Bugs sailed high into the air and landed seconds later in a mass of green shrubbery.

"For pete's sake," the man roared, "don't wreck that cactus! It's the last one we have!"

Bugs gingerly removed one of the prickly daggers. "I get the point," he muttered.

Elmer sauntered up and handed him a broom. "You were 'gweat, simply gweat," he giggled. "Now shall we go clean up the west of the work?"

Bugs leaned heavily on the broom handle. "You know," he said thoughtfully, "out of respect for my condition, I hope this picture plays to standing room only!"
